Section 2 - Admission Fee. Club membership fees will include an admission fee to be paid before the applicant can qualify as a new member. Rotarians, in good standing, transferring membership from another Club shall be exempt from the admission fee. (2/24/2014)

Article 8: Method of Voting

Section 1 - Voice Vote. The business of this Club shall be transacted by voice vote. The Board of Directors may determine that a specific resolution be considered by ballot rather than voice vote. (2/24/2014)

Section 2 - Special Arrangements. Committees and the Board of Directors may make special arrangements, on an occasional or special circumstance basis, to take votes via Electronic means (e-mail, telephone voice mail, etc.). (2/24/2014)

Article 9: Five Avenues of Service

The five (5) Avenues of Service are the philosophical and practical framework for the work of this Rotary Club. They are Club Service, Vocational Service, Community Service, International Service, and Youth Service. This Club will be active in each of the five (5) Avenues of Service.

Article 10: Committees

Club committees are charged with carrying out the annual and long-range strategic goals of the Club based on the five (5) Avenues of Service. The President-Elect, President, and Immediate Past President should work together to ensure continuity of leadership and succession planning. When feasible, Committee Members should be appointed to the same committee for one (1) year to ensure consistency. The President-Elect is responsible for appointing committee members to fill vacancies, appointing committee chairs, and conducting planning meetings prior to the start of the year in office. It is recommended that the Chairperson have previous experience as a member of the committee. Club members serving on all committees are expected to actively participate in committee business and attend meetings. Any member with two or more unexcused absences from committee meetings, following notice of such absences, can be replaced by the Club President, after consultation with the Committee Chairperson. Standing committees should be appointed as follows: * Membership: This committee should develop and implement a comprehensive plan for the recruitment and retention of members. * Club Public Relations: This committee should develop and implement plans to provide the public with information about Rotary and to promote the Club's service projects and activities. * Club Administration: This committee should conduct activities associated with the effective operation of the Club. The areas that will also fall under this committee will be Website and Facebook pages, Fundraising and Awards. * Service Projects (International and Community): This committee should develop and implement educational, humanitarian, and vocational projects that address the needs of its community and communities in other countries. * The Rotary Foundation: This committee should develop and implement plans to support The Rotary Foundation through both financial contributions and program participation. * Youth Service: This committee should develop and implement plans to support programs that have a direct impact for the Youth Service of Rotary. * Programs: This committee should develop and implement programs that will consider the objectives of Community Service, International Service, Vocational Service, Membership, Rotary Foundation, Youth Service and Club Administration. Additional ad hoc committees may be appointed as needed. (a) The president shall be ex officio a member of all committees and, as such, shall have all the privileges of membership thereon. (b) Each committee shall transact its business as is delegated to it in these bylaws and such additional business as may be referred to it by the President or The Board. Except where special authority is given by the Board, such committees shall not take action until a report has been made and approved by The Board. (c) Each chair shall be responsible for regular meetings and activities of the committee, shall supervise and coordinate the work of the committee, and shall report to the board on all committee activities.

Rotary Club of Senoia Bylaws

Article 11: Duties of Committees

The duties of all committees shall be established and reviewed by the President for his or her year. In declaring the duties of each, the President shall reference appropriate RI materials and the Five (5) Avenues of Service when developing plans for the year. The Community Service and International Service Project Committees will consider Vocational Service, Community Service, and International Service objectives when developing plans for the year. The Membership, Rotary Foundation, Public Relations and Club Administration Committees will consider Club Service objectives when developing their plans. The Youth Service will consider Youth Service objectives when developing their plans and Programs will consider the objectives of Community Service, International Service, Vocational Service, Membership, Rotary Foundation, New Generations and Club Administration when developing their plans. Each committee shall have a specific mandate, clearly defined goals, and action plans established by the beginning of each year for implementation during the course of the year. It shall be the primary responsibility of the President-Elect to provide the necessary leadership to prepare a recommendation for Club committees, mandates, goals, and plans for presentation to the Board in advance of the commencement of the year as noted above.

Article 12: Leaves of Absence

Section 1 - Application Process. Upon written application to the Board, setting forth good and sufficient cause, a leave of absence may be granted excusing the member from attending the meetings of the Club for a specified length of time. (2/24/2014)

Section 2 - Reasons. Leaves of absence will not generally be granted for any reason; however, in extraordinary circumstances, the Board shall have the power, in its discretion, to grant a leave of absence to a member. A limited medical leave of absence may be granted for a major illness upon written request to the Board. Each member shall continue to pay active dues. A member granted a leave of absence shall not be dismissed from the Club for failing to attend meetings during the period covered by the leave of absence. Unless the member attends a regular meeting of some other Club, the excused member must be recorded as absent except that absence authorized under the provisions of Article 8, sections 3 and 4 of the standard Rotary Club constitution is not computed in the attendance record of the Club. (2/24/2014)

Article 13: Finances

Section 1 - Budget. Prior to the beginning of each fiscal year, the Board shall establish a budget of estimated income and expenditures for the year, which shall stand as the limit of expenditures for these purposes, unless otherwise ordered by action of the Board. The budget shall be broken into two separate parts: one in respect of Club operations and one in respect of charitable/service operations. (2/24/2014)

Section 2 - Bank. The Treasurer shall deposit all Club funds in a bank to be named by the Board of Directors. (2/24/2014)

Section 3 - Check Signing. All bills shall be paid only by checks signed by the Treasurer or the President. (2/24/2014)

Rotary Club of Senoia Bylaws

Section 4 - Annual Review. A thorough review of all financial transactions by a qualified person shall be made once each year. (2/24/2014)

Section 5 - Bond. Officers having charge or control of Club funds shall give bond as required by the Board for the safe custody of the funds of the Club, cost of bond to be borne by the Club. (2/24/2014)

Section 6 - Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of this Club shall extend from July 1st to June 30th. The payment of dues to Rotary International shall be divided into two (2) semiannual periods extending from July 1st to December 31st, and from January 1st to June 30th. The payment of per capita dues and RI official magazine subscriptions shall be made on July 1st and January 1st of each year on the basis of the membership of the Club on those dates. (2/24/2014)

Article 14: Method of Electing Members

Section 1 - Eligibility. Adult persons of good character and good business and professional reputation are eligible for membership in the Rotary Club Coweta-Fayette. The name of a prospective member, proposed (sponsored) by an active member of the Club, shall be submitted to the Board in writing, through the Club Secretary. A transferring or former member of another Club may be proposed to active membership by the former Club. The Club membership chairperson may seek certification from the former Club that the former member was in good standing with that Club. The proposal shall be kept confidential except as otherwise provided in this procedure. (2/24/2014)

Section 2 - Requirements. The Board shall ensure that the proposal meets all the classification and membership requirements of the standard Rotary Club constitution. (2/24/2014)

Section 3 - Approval. The Board shall approve or disapprove the proposal within 30 days of its submission, and shall notify the sponsor, through the Club Secretary, of its decision. (2/24/2014)

Section 4 - Rotary Information. If the decision of the Board is favorable, the prospective member shall be informed of the purposes of Rotary and of the privileges and responsibilities of membership through a Rotary Information meeting. Following which the prospective member shall be requested to sign the membership proposal form and to permit his or her name and proposed classification to be published to the Club. (2/24/2014)

Section 5 - Election. If no written objection to the proposal, stating reasons, is received by the Board from any member (other than honorary) of the Club within seven (7) days following publication of information about the prospective member, that person, upon payment of the admission fee (if not honorary membership), as prescribed in these bylaws, shall be considered to be elected to membership. If any such objection has been filed with the Board, it shall vote on this matter at its next meeting. If approved despite the objection, the proposed member, upon payment of the admission fee (if not honorary membership), shall be considered to be elected to membership. (2/24/2014)

Section 6 - Induction. Following the election, the President shall arrange for the new member's induction, membership card, and new member Rotary literature. In addition, the President or Secretary will report the new member information to RI and the President will assign a member to assist with the new member's assimilation to the Club as well as assign the new member to a committee. (2/24/2014)

Section 7 - Honorary Members. The Club may elect, in accordance with the standard Rotary Club constitution, honorary members proposed by the Board. (2/24/2014)

Article 15: Resolutions

No resolution or motion to commit the Club on any matter shall be considered by the Club until it has been considered by the Board. Such resolutions or motions, if offered at a Club meeting, shall be referred to the Board without discussion.

Article 16: Order of Business
